FACTORY REPAIR PRICING POLICY

Det-tronics Factory Repair Center utilizes standardized repair service pricing that characterizes product repair and testing fees by product class (groupings of similar products) for approved Repair Material Authorization (RMA) returns.

An authorized purchase order for the amount of the standard product class pricing is required prior to the Repair Center issuing an RMA identification number. All equipment returned within an approved RMA is to be shipped freight pre-paid to the Repair Center, and equipment return freight costs and any required sales tax will be added to invoice when applicable at actual cost.

Testing fees apply to non-warranty products tested and not repaired, or products subsequently found compliant with factory manufacturing quality & test parameters, eg no problem found. Testing fees will be waived if the customer property is repaired or a replacement item is purchased as part of the same transaction. All equipment requiring major component/assembly replacement such as pc boards or sensor modules will be invoiced at actual time and material cost as required to repair the product.

Typical equipment repair turn-around time ranges from one to four weeks after receipt at Repair Center, contingent upon prior RMA approval and provision of an accurate, concise description of the product problems or symptoms observed by the customer

Customer property returned to the Repair Center without an RMA identification number, authorized purchase order, or without any description of the product problem or symptoms will be handled on a case by case basis and special handling charges may apply.

Customer approval will be sought before proceeding if the repair costs fall out of our standard product class repair cost guidelines. Products returned for repair that do not fall into one of the defined product classes will be charged at 40 percent of the current list price for that item.
